Workshop Series

MONETIZE YOUR SOCIAL NETWORKING EFFORTS

With keynote speaker, Jason Sadler, founder of www.iwearyourshirt.com

So maybe this social networking thing isn't new to you, but you are not exactly teaching classes on it either. If you are like most business people who have moved beyond snail mail, this workshop is for you. Most know about Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn, but few learn how to MONETIZE their contacts to make a real impact in their wallet.

Hear an inspiring tale about a guy who started just like you. Jason will tell his proud story about how he rose from casual internet surfer to Entrepreneur.com calling him a "media mastermind."

ABOUT THE SPEAKER, JASON SADLER

As seen on (take a deep breath) CNN, LA Times, Chicago Tribune, CBS with Katie Couric, CNBC, ABC with Charles Gibson, MSNBC, NY Times, Wall Street Journal, and dozens of others, Jason has rocked the online world, cracked the internet code and created his own dream job. Starting his company just 13 months ago at just 27 years old, he has created a machine that earns him an income of more than six figures. How does he do it? By wearing t-shirts. No, that's not a misprint, he puts a shirt on every morning and gets paid big bucks to do it.
